

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

in 1977, as a station manager for a public radio station, I was appalled then at the control that giant media companies had over even our tiny operation there. Don't let giant media companies grab control of the very little diversity we still have.
